

Academic Year 2025-26

Disciplinary Committee

The Disciplinary Committee is a college body responsible for maintaining order, enforcing the institutional code of conduct, and ensuring a safe academic environment.

The main aim of the committee is to enforce discipline, investigate student misconduct, and promote responsible behavior through fair adjudication and appropriate penalties.

Key Functions:

1. Investigate violations (e.g., ragging, property damage, harassment, substance abuse).
2. Provide a Fair Hearing to accused students (adhering to natural justice principles).
3. Recommend Penalties ranging from warnings and fines to suspension or expulsion.
