

Academic Year 2025-26

Library Committee

The main aim of the Library Committee is to plan, supervise, and strengthen the functioning of the college library to ensure compliance with Mumbai University affiliation conditions and AICTE norms, and to support high-quality teaching, learning, and research. Its key objectives include planning and recommending the purchase of books, journals, and e-resources, as well as formulating and reviewing library policies. The Committee oversees the annual library budget, monitors stock verification and maintenance, and ensures removal of outdated materials. It also promotes the effective use of library resources, supports library automation and digitization, and acts as a link between departments, students, and library staff to enhance overall library services.
