

Academic Year 2025-26

Student Council Committee

The Student Council is a representative body of students that serves as a bridge between the student community and the college administration. It provides a platform for students to voice their ideas, concerns, and suggestions, and actively participates in organizing academic, cultural, sports, and social activities. The council fosters leadership, teamwork, and responsibility among students, promotes student welfare, and contributes to creating a vibrant, inclusive, and disciplined campus environment.
